

My brief bio-data

Dr (Col) SK Jha is a Consultant Neurologist at Patna. He is a graduate of Armed Forces Med College, Pune. He has obtained his MD degree from University of Delhi and his DM in Neurology from AIIMS (Delhi). He has served for over 25 years in Army Med Corps of Indian Army. He has been elected Fellow of American Academy of Neurology in 2022.

His areas of interest include epilepsy, stroke at high altitude and electrophysiology. He has published over 30 articles in various national and international journals. His paper on 'Stroke at high altitude – Indian experience" is widely quoted. He has delivered lectures, conducted/ moderated seminars and discussions and has attended a large number of national and International conferences.